Chicago Flower and Garden Show

In 2009, 50,000+ visitors were wowed by the gardens, including many created by leading designers and builders in collaboration with Chicago's best known cultural institutions. In 2010, the "theme" gardens will be back and pair designers and builders with several of Chicago's acclaimed theaters in keeping with the 2010 show theme: "Cultivating Great Performances."

Other returning highlights include the wildly popular FREE educational seminars, interactive gardening workshops, Garden Gourmet cooking demonstrations, inspirational Tablescapes, the Children's Activity Garden, and much more! Price includes round trip transportation and ticket to the show.
